

A Poem (by George R)

This is a poem written by a local Inverness man called George R
If you are the Ice Queen, then i am Jack Frost,
Together we could dance to a tune that is merry,
And never need worry of the banshee faerie,
I've lived as jack for many long year's,
Living in love to banish my fears,There was never enough time to settle down,
To take away Jacks terrible frown,
You are the same i know this is true,
You're just like me loving and kind,And both have been hurt by wrong judgement and mind,
But both have survived our love that was blind,But miracles happen i know this is true,
For the one we created deep in our mind,
I promise you this that's who you will find,
With no fear of love and no doubt of distrust,As the one we will find will be honest and kind,
Then we can travel the streams of true love,
And through both our minds we can sail to the stars,
See the milky way Jupiter and mars,And the farther we dance through our own space and time,
This love we created trusted and grew,
Will always be faithful, unbreakable and true.George R
